Inauguration of Start-up Club on 24th November 2020

The Centre for Women Entrepreneurship at St. Mira's College for Girls, Pune established the Institution Innovation Council (Ministry of Education Initiative) GOI, in October 2020. The Start-up Club (IIC) was formally inaugurated by the Principal, Dr. G. H. Gidwani, on 24th November 2020, through a virtual platform.

The session was introduced by Dr. Rama Venkatachalam, President IIC and hosted by Ms. Abhradita Chatterjee Nahvi, Vice President IIC. A catalogue consisting of profiles of 40 budding entrepreneurs from a wide spectrum of business such as fashion designing, baking, online classes, handmade crafts, graphology, handmade jewellery, vegan food, etc., was formally released.

Budding entrepreneurs like Pratiksha Bokadia, partner at Kaieo Health Care Services; Afreen Sabooni the founder of Label Afreen Sabooni; Kashmiri Rajput the founder of Cakemira; Samina Kausar, a social entrepreneur and few others shared their experiences and insights on their business. They spoke of how CWE has motivated and guided them in fine-tuning their business ideas and taking them to the next level of registration, promotion, networking, etc.

Principal Dr. Gulshan Gidwani shared a short inspiring story and encouraged the budding entrepreneurs by saying, "Don't be just job seekers but also be job providers." Mrs. Stella Ambrose, Course coordinator BBA & BSc, shared words of wisdom and encouragement.

The session concluded with an appreciation for Riddhi Wadhvani of SYBBA for the catalogue designing and collating. Riya Barde of TYBCom, student representative of the Start-up Club of IIC proposed the vote of thanks. It was an interesting and inspiring session for all the participants.
