Memorandum Of Understanding

Agreement Between Jeevitnadi-Living River Foundation and Dept of Sociology, St. Mira's College

Introduction

Jeevitnadi-Living River Foundation is a non-profit Organization, works for the revival of the river. Inspired by prominent ecologist Late Shri Prakash Gole, alumni of Ecological Society came together in 2014 to work for revival of rivers in Pune. This was a group of individuals from diverse professional fields who were passionate about environment conservation. It focuses on what they can do for our river, on individual as well as community level. Raising public awareness and participation, eliminating causes of pollution through toxin-free lifestyles, developing scientific and ecological management plan for revival of river and its sustainability are their tools in achieving this vision. This initiative to protect rivers evolved into Jeevitnadi. In September 2016, Jeevitnadi became a section 8 company, registered under the name Jeevitnadi- Living River Foundation. Jeevitnadi works on various projects and is associated as one of the founders of Ramnadi restoration mission. It is also on advisory panels and recipient of many accolades and awards.

St.Mira's College for Girl's (Autonomous – Affiliated to Savitribai Phule Pune University) is a part of the 'Mira Movement in Education'. The college is a well acclaimed institution for degree courses in Arts, Commerce and Science with an outstanding record of high academic results, well-placed alumni, accountability, well-established self- correcting mechanisms and healthy practices. It places a high value on humanitarian values and service to the community. St. Mira's College for Girls' Sociology department works for the community it gives students the actual experience in the field even opportunity to do internship and outreach programs with NGO's and other organizations.

Introduction

Artsphere Therapy, 402, North Court Building, North Avenue Road Number 12, Near Jogger's Park, Above Cafe Colombia, Kalyani Nagar, Pune, Maharashtra 411006 at Pune, recognises the need for organisational co-operation and communication with The Arts Therapists CoLab (hereinafter referred to as (TATC)), a Partnership Firm with registered office B8/2, 1st cross St, AGS Colony beach, Kottivakkam Chennai 600041, and St. Mira's College for Girls, Pune at 6, Koregaon Road, Near Hotel Blue Diamond, Pune, Maharashtra 411001, a charitable not for profit organization registered under section 80G and 12A of the Indian Income Tax Act, 1961.

Artsphere Therapy is a liaison partner between TATC and St. Mira's College for Girls, Pune, for successful execution of the Post Graduate Diploma in Dance Movement Therapy for the academic years 2021-2022 and 2022-2023.

The Arts Therapists CoLab (TATC), and Artsphere Therapy work together to perform activities relating to public awareness of preventive health, advancement of skill development relating to physically or mentally abused and traumatized and marginalized persons, provide overall mind/ body health and wellness programmes as well as fieldwork projects for society at large, training and coaching in recreational activities related to arts including but not limited to the body, mind and creative movements to heal, strengthen and find one's inner self. Aligning to these objectives only, in the year 2020 Artsphere Therapy is starting an educational and skills development programme for advancement of objective of mental wellness through dance/movement involving St. Mira's College for Girls, Pune and TATC making a Tripartite arrangement. It is anticipated there may be areas where a formal understanding (MOU) between The Arts Therapists CoLab (TATC), Artsphere Therapy and St. Mira's College for Girls, Pune would underpin and support the ongoing co-operation and current lines of communication.

Purpose and Scope

The purpose of this MOU is to provide the framework arrangement between TATC, Artsphere Therapy and St. Mira's College for Girls, Pune that covers skills development initiatives as enumerated in introduction space as above for the period, academic year(s) (2021-2022) (2022-2023).

The benefit of the MOU is that TATC, Artsphere Therapy, and St. Mira's College for Girls, Pune, have a clear framework within which they can support and enhance mental health and well-being through the use of psychotherapeutic body movements for participants to be able to treat mental health issues for various populations including traumatized persons at present or in the future.

These three organisations are working together to ensure spread of such mental wellness techniques through the arts to the society at large.
