

A PENNY HERE, A PENNY THERE

Saving doesn't always mean sacrificing on what you like. You can do these simple hacks and you'll be sorted. By Adelina Dsouza

There are those bothersome expenses that come out every month that we don't think about. Often we just overlook these expenses because they come and go every month. We can start a way to trim away the excess of these expenses and start to see huge rewards over time. There are a lot of ways to save money without making huge sacrifices. We just need to get creative when the money's tight.

SET A FINANCIAL GOAL AND BUILD SAVINGS. YOU NEED TO HAVE A BUDGET AND STICK TO IT

How to save money for the long run? No matter how much our income is, saving is crucial! There are quite simple and clever ways to save money. We have to keep learning and experimenting new ways to budget here are a few pointers that will be helpful.

Goal setting

Set a financial goal and build savings. You need to have a budget and stick to it. This includes being realistic about your household financial situation, and setting honest and attainable numbers corresponding to your spending, so that >