REPORT

BBA – (SMCARG) ACTIVITY I academic year 2019-2020(10th April- 29 May 2019)

Volunteers from (SMCARG) St Miras College fo Girls along with the Indies team in collaboration with Wadgaonsheri Animal Saviours, Kalyani Nagar Woof and other volunteers has over the past 30 days conducted a census of the Stray Dog population and counted nearly 800+ Dog's in Wadgaonsheri and 250+ dogs in Kalyani nagar with the help of the Indies app. It was almost a 2 month long volunteering program. There were about 10 girls who had participated in this program.

This census recorded on the Indies app allows the volunteers to have hands-on data with regards to number of Dog's, Male Female ratio, Sterilization and Vaccination details, Dog's under/ requiring medication allowing the volunteers to plan sterilization and vaccination drives.

This data can also be made available to the government agencies allowing them to use the information to draw up plans and budgets accordingly.

The census drive also ensured that the local community saw the volunteers at work first hand and were also able to share their grievances, get medical assistance for sick dogs, get puppies signed up for adoption camps.
