Report on Webinar On Online Internship and Projects

Department of Business Studies organised a webinar on Online Internships & Projects — Peer-to-Peer knowledge sharing by seven PGDBM students of IMDR, Pune, on 23rd September 2020 from 7.00 pm to 8.30 pm.

The webinar was attended by more than 73 students of SY B.Com & T Y B.Com BE students and two faculty and 7 student resource persons. The presenters with the help of a PPT took the participants through the following points: Meaning of internships and its role in building your resume; Different platforms for Internships and the services offered by them; Benefits & myths of internships.

They discussed the platform Internshala in detail, giving a demo of how to register and explore the different options of certificate courses and internships offered. They also shared their personal and professional experiences on the different internships completed by them. The highly interactive session gave good insights on internship opportunities to the participants. Many of the participants as part of the feedback have expressed their keen interest in taking it forward and getting hands-on experience on internships and certificate courses to upskill themselves.
