Soft skills session-II Interview Skills and Resume Writing

Date - 8th Sep 2018

Another brilliant session on soft skills was conducted for group discussion & personal interview skills and also on personality grooming was conducted on the 8th of September, 2018, Saturday in collaboration with PIBM (Pune Institute of Business Management). It was attended by 170 students from across the streams of BBA, BBA-CA, BSC (computer Science), BA, and B.COM.

The session was conducted by Mr. Diniar Patel, the current managing editor in the TOI, who not only captivated the students minds with his knowledge but also incorporated all the fun in the learning.

Equipping students with modern ways of presenting themselves & their resumé for an interview, Mr. Patel gave various insights on requirements in today's times. The students were enlightened about the path ways to achieve the right kind of value addition to their profile. When it came to personality matters, Mr. Patel emphasized on having a persistent approach along with determined mindset.

He also highlighted the need of being aware about the current affairs, knowing the game changers & encouraged the students to enhance their knowledge through reading.

This illuminating session imparted his wisdom which enabled the students to evaluate their understanding towards interview skills and improvise their strategy for job interrogations. The workshop was a successful endeavor at educating the students for the formation of a stronger base in the career of their choice.
