Report on Online Career Guidance session on CMA

27th January 2022 marked the first collaborative activity by the Department of Accountancy and the ICAI Pune Chapter in the form of a Career Guidance Session by the CMA officials for the students of our college from 12 pm to 2 pm on Google Meet.

The session started with opening remarks by Principal In-Charge, Dr Jaya Rajagopalan who lauded the collaboration towards benefitting our students. Dr Dimple Buche introduced the two esteemed speakers- practicing as Cost Accountants- CMA Meena Vaidya and CMA Abhay Deodhar and invited them to share their expertise.

CMA Abhay Deodhar shared insights on the variety of roles that are played by CMAs in any corporate entity. Further, he updated the audience on recruitment possibilities in Public; Private and Multinational Companies too.

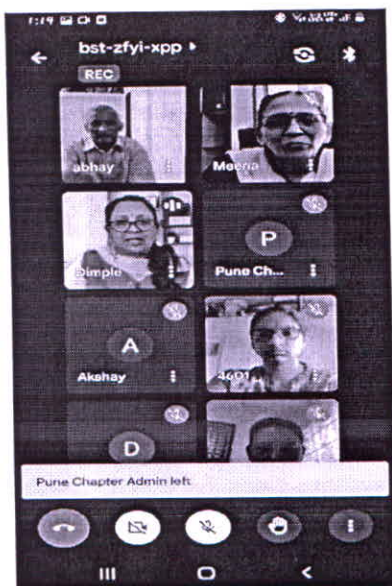

CMA Meena Vaidya highlighted on the lifelong employment ensured for CMAs, particularly the appropriateness of the course for girls as a career option which can be continued even in case of a break being taken by them.

The CMA officials illustrated the significance of CMAs in today's world through a video and further, a clear insight on the eligibility for the course, duration of the course, its benefits and its wide career aspects were shared through a ppt.

The speakers also shared and elaborated on the short-term employability oriented online course- CAT (Certificate in Accounting Technicians) offered by the ICAI.

Mrs. Deepanjali Majumder of the department extended the vote of thanks.
