ED Workshop – 26 th July 2017

“Innovation: It's not the idea, but it's what you do with it”

This being the central idea of the guest lecture on Entrepreneurial Development that took place in the morning of the 26 th of July, Sabiha Fazalbhoy introduced the key role of establishing entrepreneurship as a stream specialisation. She is an Entrepreneurship Management Professional at the Symbiosis Center for Management Studies, a recent PhD graduate from Germany, and more importantly, an alumni of St. Mira's College! She graced the students of TYBBA and BCom with an hour long session that was based on Ideation and Ideation Generation. She divided the session into two main segments – the first segment highlighted the stages of idea generation and the second segment focused on the techniques of ideation.

Ms. Sabiha Fazalbhoy blurred the line between the two parts of the session by stating some facts about idea generation in the hope that the girls would get inspired and confident to face their own ideas. She believes that an idea can come to an individual irrespective of education, social class, intellect level, etc., and no idea is a bad idea. It was only due to Ms. Sabiha's enthusiastic nature that the girls were focused enough to grasp as much as they could in the hour long session; managed to make the lecture as lively as possible, in such a way that the girls didn't even realise how fast the hour flew by. Though the matter revolved around businesses and entrepreneurs, Fazalbhoy made it pertinent for the girls to relate and was thus exceptionally practical in her approach. The students and the teachers could not be more grateful in extending a warm welcome to their very own alumni on the other side of the podium; it was an honour for the college as well as Ms. Fazalbhoy.

36 students participated.
