REPORT ON DR. M.R. JAYKAR EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS PROGRAMME-2018-19

“The more we give importance to skill development, the more competent will be our youth.” -MR. NARENDRA MODI.

Skill development is critical for economic growth and social development. Skill development has been considered one of the critical aspects for job creation in India. India has unique demographic advantage with more than 60% of the population (approximately) is in young age group. But in order to get the most out of such large work force, employability has to be improved.

The skill development system in India is tilted towards a formal education system with limited vocational training. While the vocational training is in a state where it is given least importance both qualitatively and quantitatively, the higher education system itself is struggling with issues related to level and quality of skills.

Moreover, there is no link between the formal education system and work requirements, which has increased the challenges related to the skill gap.

Quoting Honourable Prime Minister of India, Shree Narendra Modi's Independence Day(2014) Speech –“Today, the world and India need a skilled workforce. If we have to promote the development of our country then our mission has to be 'skill development' and 'Skilled India'. Millions and Millions of Indian youth should acquire the skills which could contribute towards making India a modern country.”

Storytelling by Chetan Shetty

Ram Khilwan

Number of Participants: 171

Chetan Shetty is Chief Operating Officer of Extensia, an Indo-German global technology company that deals with consulting and innovation for mobile, cloud and design but his passion is literature and storytelling.

On Thursday, 26th July 2018 at 12 pm in the A.V Room he told the story 'Ram Khilawan' by Manto followed by a discussion thereafter.

The story is about a young man's life journey in which his Dhobi plays a central role including inadvertently saving his life when he is almost attacked by a mob. It is a post partition narrative when India was rocked by communal riots.

Different girls talked about their personal partition memories that were part of their family history. Others talked about how the rich exploit the poor using them to fight their battles.

Chetan also talked about Extensia and internship opportunities with them. He emphasized how important it was for young women to be self reliant and financially independent. In addition he spoke about corporate culture and work ethics.

The talk was attended by over 150 students and was huge success.

Guest Lecture on an Introduction to Editing

Number of participants: 100

A guest lecture on an introduction to editing was organized on August 4, 2018, which took place at St. Mira's College in the AV Room at 12 pm. The lecture was conducted by Mrs. Tanvi Kher, a financial editor at Crisil Ltd. who also has experience in market research report editing, and Mr. Shishir Rao, a sub-editor at Sakal Times with considerable experience in editing as well as writing.

Mrs. Kher broadly covered the main aspects of content editing. She briefly explained the roles and responsibilities of an editor with the help of the five Cs—correctness, clarity, conciseness, comprehensibility, and consistency. Correctness of the text is undoubtedly the most important role of an editor, wherein the editor must ensure that the text is entirely free of any errors concerning spellings, grammar, and punctuation. Clarity, on the other hand, is ensuring that the reader has a good grasp of the basics and that the text is unambiguous and crisp. With regard to editing, more is not always better; the content should always be concise, wherein only relevant information should be included or retained. Jargon, irrelevant data, and redundancies should be removed entirely, which simultaneously reduces the volume and increases the quality of the text. Comprehensibility of the text would cover aspects such as correct usage of adjectives and adverbs and good sentence and paragraph structure. Consistency is a mark of quality, and it is the editor's responsibility that consistency with regard to spellings, names, and style is followed throughout.

Mr. Rao mainly focused on the roles of a sub-editor working at a newspaper office. The level of editing for sub-editors at newspapers is Light or Baseline Editing (L2 Editing). These include correcting faulty spelling, grammar, and punctuation; checking specific cross-references; ensuring consistency in spelling, hyphenation, numerals, and capitalization; and checking for proper sequencing. Other responsibilities include writing headlines, fact checking, and co-coordinating with the designer for the layout of the newspaper.

The lecture was organized by Dr. Snober Sataravala and Ms. Zuha Peerbhoy. The sole purpose of this lecture was to make the students acquainted with content editing as a sound and lucrative career option, and breaking down the process of editing to enhance the value of the written material.

Activity Report

Performance of Chouboli by The Storytellers

Number of participants: 50

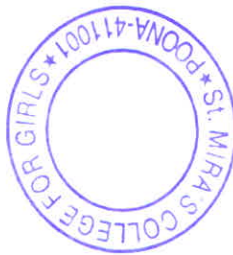

'The Storytellers' are a passionate group of performers who through their enactment of stories give voice to the voiceless and comment on current social problems.

On Thursday 20th September 2018 at 12 noon, 6 of their group told the story Chouboli written by Vijaydan Detha. The story is in the style of folklore and tells of a Thakur who plagues his poor wife everyday by shooting 108 arrows through the loop of her nose ring to flaunt his prowess with absolutely no concern for the stress and trauma he is putting her through. A sequence of events leads to his imprisonment. He is taught a lesson by his youngest wife who wins him the hand of the beautiful and wise Chouboli by getting her to break her vow of silence. The latter feels no regret for she is overthrown by a fellow sister (disguised as a man) and her brilliant stories. Together the two women rule the kingdom and live happily ever after.

The session was concluded by passionate discussions on the sense of disappointment that the foolish Rana gets two beautiful wives, others talked about the power of stories, some commented on the importance of a sisterhood and one forgave the Rana for at least he was a man of action who seized the day. It was an entertaining, stimulating session that brought about a great deal of awareness through showing rather than telling.

Activity Report

Department of English: Report Language Lab 2018-19

Number of participants: 80

In keeping with the practice that was successfully followed from 2012 the Language Lab has been used to improve the skills of both advanced and below average learners of English. Roma Dar, continued to be the teacher in charge of the language lab. In keeping with the prescribed syllabus but also aiming to enhance skills various modules were prescribed for the students with a graded increase in difficulty levels. As was the case earlier students from each of the following classes had at least one session per week. Since the lab has 10 computers the students came in batches of 10 for about 20 minutes minimum based on the size of the class. In the year 2018-19 a minimum of 80 students benefited from the language lab as per the attendance sheets however there were many for unofficial visits for general practice outside class hours.

FY, SY and TYBA Marathi medium students did basic courses using the Oreill software. The topics varied from vocabulary, saying thank you to self introduction and errors in English.

For the more advanced students, that is the TYBA English special students, courses on phonetics and grammar were prescribed.

Students were also permitted to come for extra sessions if they wished.

Nirbhay Kanya Abhiyan Workshop (21st -23rd January 2019)

Nirbhay Kanya Abhiyan workshop was organized in St. Mira's College from 21st to 23rd January 2019 with an objective of inculcating fearlessness among girl students. Fearlessness is seen as an important personality trait which refers to both a physical and mental ability to control and cope up with one's social environment. In case of girls, who face the gender bias in all walks of life it is a great challenge to inculcate the value of fearlessness. In recent years, when on one hand we see women working in all fields equally with men, the incidences of abuse and violence against women are also consistently rising. For becoming a fearless women, a girl does not only requires education, social or family support but also be financially independent. So, a campaign like Nirbhay Kanya Abhiyan is very essential in helping students understand structural constraints that restrict their freedom and learn ways and strategies to deal with them.

On 21st January 2019, the Abhiyan was inaugurated at the hands of Dr. Shalini Iyer, Vice-Principal of St. Mira's College. In the inaugural session Prof. Manjita Kulkarni welcomed the participants and presented the details of three day's programme. Prof. Hasina Shaikh explained the importance of the campaign and appealed to students to participate wholeheartedly and make efforts to change oneself in the direction of fearlessness. Total 100 students look advantage of the sessions.

The first session was on Health and Diet conducted by Dr. Anjum Shaikh, a specialist in health issues of young girls and women. She explained the importance of diet and nutrition for adolescence. She explained the meaning of diet, its vital nutrients for survival and helps the body function and keeps healthy. She explained the importance of protein, carbohydrates and fats. She gave number of examples for healthy diet in day to day life. She suggested students to have milk, fruits, vegetables etc. It was an interactive session where students asked their queries regarding health, weight loss and weight gain. She even focused on physical fitness with the help of exercises and diet. She guided the students for diet plan and asked them to follow for maintaining health. She insisted that small meals at small intervals are good for health. She even told the students to get their tiffins and don't have junk food, as it is not good for health. Overall, the session was very inspiring for the students.

The second session was on Self- Defence conducted by Mr. Balkrishna Bhandari, Sports Coach and Taekwondo Expert. Mr. Bhandari first explained how self defense is very closely related to self-confidence. He said that in today's world when incidences of abuse and violence against women is consistently increasing, the first and obvious reaction of the family is to increase restrictions on girls. This affects their self-confidence. Instead, if the girls are taught to protect themselves, they can move around without any fear. Mr. Bhandari then showed simple means of self-defence which the girls can use to protect themselves in regular situations like bus travel. Then he demonstrated self-defense tactics to be used in situations of physical violence or

Mr. Bhandari then demonstrated with the help of volunteers some very useful self-defence actions which the girls have to learn only through regular practice. He then conducted an elaborate practice session for students of all self-defence tactics he had shown. At the end he said that self-defence exercises must be practiced on a regular basis and not remain only at a workshop level where most participants forget it very quickly. Girls promised that they will imbibe it properly as they have understood the importance of self-defence.

On the Theory of the Earth

By Sir James Clerk Maxwell

The first part of the theory of the earth is the theory of the origin of the earth. It is a theory which has been advanced by many philosophers and scientists, and which has been the subject of much discussion and controversy. The theory is based on the assumption that the earth was formed by the aggregation of particles of matter which were scattered throughout space. These particles were attracted to each other by the force of gravitation, and they gradually accumulated into a central mass. As the mass increased, the force of gravitation became stronger, and the particles were drawn more closely together. This process continued until the earth had reached its present size and shape.

The second part of the theory of the earth is the theory of the origin of life. It is a theory which has been advanced by many philosophers and scientists, and which has been the subject of much discussion and controversy. The theory is based on the assumption that life was first produced on the earth by the action of certain forces. These forces were the forces of gravitation, electricity, and magnetism. The action of these forces produced a certain amount of heat, and this heat was sufficient to produce life. The first life was a simple form of life, and it gradually evolved into the more complex forms of life which we see today.

The third part of the theory of the earth is the theory of the origin of the human race. It is a theory which has been advanced by many philosophers and scientists, and which has been the subject of much discussion and controversy. The theory is based on the assumption that the human race was first produced on the earth by the action of certain forces. These forces were the forces of gravitation, electricity, and magnetism. The action of these forces produced a certain amount of heat, and this heat was sufficient to produce the human race. The first human was a simple form of human, and it gradually evolved into the more complex forms of human which we see today.

The fourth part of the theory of the earth is the theory of the origin of the human mind. It is a theory which has been advanced by many philosophers and scientists, and which has been the subject of much discussion and controversy. The theory is based on the assumption that the human mind was first produced on the earth by the action of certain forces. These forces were the forces of gravitation, electricity, and magnetism. The action of these forces produced a certain amount of heat, and this heat was sufficient to produce the human mind.
