Department of Accountancy- 2021-2022

Report on Career Guidance session on CMA course- 18th December 2021

The Department of Accountancy conducted a Career Guidance Session on Certified Management Accountant (CMA) for the Second and Third Year BCom Students having Cost and Works Accountancy as their specialization subject Today, on 18th December, 2021,. This online session was conducted via Google Meet by CMAJasleen Kaur Raheja, an alumni of 2020-2021 batch of St. Mira's College for Girls, Pune.

The session began with the speakers introduction by the subject teacher Dr. Dimple Buche. CMA Jasleen Kaur explained the role of a Management Accountant and was able to aroused the interest of all the participants regarding the course. Further, she gave us an insight into CMA US Course, a Globally Recognized Courses, its eligibility criteria, the subjects, the mode of exam, the time duration, the work experience required and her preparation strategies. Also, she discussed the similarities and differences between CMA India Course and CMA USA Course.

In addition, she guided the students to have flexibility in career choices and change if required as happened in her own case. She elaborated on how a small change in her perspective took a turn for her Career Goals from becoming a CA to CMA. She strongly recommended to take up internships which play a significant role to groom oneself. And, most importantly, failures should never demotivate anyone.

The session was very informative and a motivational Career Guidance Session.
