Report of the Event :- GANPATI CELEBRATIONS 2017-18

The Green Club of St Mira's college for girls took the initiative of celebrating Eco - Friendly Ganpati Utsav. Under the able guidance of Prof. Shalini Iyer, and with the help of Jyoti and Prof. Deepa , the green club members created a Ganpati idol using paper and clay.

The Ganesh Sthapana was done on 25th of August 2017 in the Sanctuary Hall at 11 am. All the Council members gathered in the sanctuary hall along with other students and began with the Utsav. Students participated in the event

The Ganesh idol was carried from the college gate to the sanctuary hall, as the girls danced on the music played. The Ganesh Sthapana was then done in the sanctuary hall. The celebration ended with the Ganesh aarti and distribution of Prasad.

This beautiful Ganpati celebration ended up on a positive note on the 29th of August 2017 when the Ganpati Visarjan took place. There were arrangements made for the Dhol Tasha Pathak where all the students enjoyed and rejoiced.

The entire Student Council team was responsible the same day for maintaining the discipline among students, conducting visarjan, wrapping up the decoration and serving food to the people who were a part of the pathak. Total 76 students participated in the celebrations.
