Research Paper Competition_ India 2020: Vision and Reality_ Report

The PG seminar for students has been an annual feature of Department of Economics for over a decade. Every year, the PG seminar explores the current and relevant economic issues creating an active platform for the students to interact with the experts and to share their views.

For the year 2019-20, the PG seminar was held on 22nd February 2020. In all, 61 participants had registered for the seminar. This year's theme was India 2020: Vision & Reality which aimed at revisiting the Vision 2020 put forth by Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam.

a part of the PG seminar organized by Dept. of Economics, a Research Paper Competition was organized on the theme of "India 2020: Vision and Reality" inviting research papers from students of UG and PG courses of all streams. In all 18 papers were received out of which 4 papers were from other colleges. The papers covered a wide array of issues ranging from agriculture, poverty, education, changing political paradigms and youth in India connecting them to the Vision 2020. The post lunch session of the seminar consisted of paper presentation by the students.

Dr. Malati Roy, former head of department of Economics at S. P. College, Pune and Dr. Saili Belsare, Asst. Prof. of Economics at Cummins college of Engineering were the judges for the competition. The papers were evaluated on the content, methodology, language and presentation as well as relevance of the theme. The prize winners were as follows:-

First Prize- Ms. Yiter Gadi and Ms. Iris Lobo

Title- "An Analysis Of Indian Education System And, Dr. Kalam's Vision Of Education For New India"

Second Prize- Ms. Namrata Datta

Title- "INDIA 2020: HEALTH CARE COGNIZANCE"

Third Prize- Ms. Shreshtha Pattadar

Title- "TOURISM INDUSTRY- A BOON FOR INDIAN ECONOMY IN 2020"

The seminar and the competition concluded with judge's comments in which Dr. Roy and Dr. Belsare congratulated all the participants for their efforts and urged them to keep up the research activity as an essential part of their academic and personal development.
